

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth. 13 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills that were under the whole heaven were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of rowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man :

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth; and Noah only semained alive, and they that were with him in an hundred and fifty days.

God's promise to curse the earth no more. ND God remembered Noah, and every . living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark : and God made a ' wind to pass over the earth, and the waters as maged:

2 The fountains also of the deep, and the windows of heaven, were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained;

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the bundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 % And the ark rested in the seventh month. on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month; in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from o.f the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from oif the face of the ground.

- 9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark : for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.
- 10 And he staved yet other seven days, and again he sent forch the dove out of the ark.
- 11 And the dove came in to him in the evening, and, lo, in her mouth ras an olive-leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days, and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

13 % And it came to pass, in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth : and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was in y.

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said. They are departed bence: for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they compared against him to slay him. 19 And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.

him to his father again. 23 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many co-

3 Judah begetteth Er, Onan, and Shelah. 6 Er marrieth Tamar. 8 The trespass of Onan. 12 Judah's incest with Tamer.

ND it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adultamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite, whose name was Shuah: and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er. 4 And she conceived again, and bare a son :

and she called his name Onan. 5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah: and he was at Che2lb when she bare him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar.

7 And Er, Judah's first-born, was wicked in the sight of the Lond; and the Lond slew

him. 8 And Judah said unto Onen, Go in unto thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother. 9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his: and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displemed

the Loap: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughterin-law, Remain a widow at thy father's house oll Shelah my son be grown: (for he said, best possilyanture he die also as hie brothren did:) and Tamar went and dwelt in her fa-ther's house.

12 T And in process of time, the tlaughter of Shuah. Judah's wife, died: and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheep-shearers to Timpath, he and his friend Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, thy father-in-law goeth up to Timnath to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped horself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Timnath: for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given

CHAP. XXXIX. 1 Joseph, advanced in Potiphär's house, 7 resisteth his mistresy's temptation: 13 he is fairely accused, 20 and cast into prison.

A ND Joseph was brought down to Egypt : A ND Joseph was urought to have he cap-tain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Inhmaelites, which had brought him down thither.

2 And the Loar was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man : and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

3 And his master saw that the Lord was with him, and that the Loan made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his band

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the Load blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake: and the blessing of the Loan was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field. 6 And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand; and he knew not aught he had, save the bread which he did eat: and Joseph was a goodly person. and well-favoured

7 ¶ And it came to pass after these things. Chat his master's wife cast her eves upon Joseph; and she said, Lie with me.

8 But he refused, and said unto his mester's wife. Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he bath to my band :

9 There is none greater in this house than I; neither hath he kept back any thing from me but thee, because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?

10 And it came to pass, as she spake to Joseph day by day, that he bearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass, about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business; and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she caught him by his garment, saying. Lie with me : and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her band, and was fled forth, la That she called unto the men of ber house, and spake unto them, saying, See, he buth brought in an Hebrew unto us to mack us: he came in unto me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice.

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled, and got

16 And she laid up his garment by her until his lord came home.

17 And she spake unto him according to these words, saying. The Hebrew servant, which they had brought unto us, came in unto into his hand, after the former manner when me to mock me.

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did th servant to me; that his wrath was kindled

20 And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound : and he was there in the prison. 21 T But the Long was with Joseph, and shewed him mercy, and gave him favour in he sight of the keeper of the prison. 22 And the keeper of the prison committed o Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatsoever they did there he was the doer of it.

23 The keeper of the prison looked not to any thing that was under his band; because did, the Lord made it to prosper. CHAP. XL.

I The buller and baker of Pharach are imprirened: 5 Joseph interpretesh their dream

ND it came to pass after these things A that the butler of the king of Egypt and his baker had offended their lord the king of baker, among his servants. Egypt

2 And Pharach was wroth against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers, Pharaoh's band : and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the pripon, the pitce where Jessph wer bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged for senia with them, and he served them; and they continued a season in ward.

5 T And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man-according to the interpretation of his dream; the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison. 6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behole, they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that mere with him in the ward of his lord's house, raying, Wherefore look we so sadiv to-Jay?

8 And they said unto him. We have dream ed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me them, I pray you. 9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said unto him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine mere three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes. Il And Pharaon's cup was in my hands and I took the grapes, ar. pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharach's hand, 12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days.

13 Yet within three days shall Pharach lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place; and thou shalt deliver Pharach's cup thou wast his butler. 14 But think on me when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee. unto me; and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews; and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dung on.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, I had three white baskets on my head.

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bake-meats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the banket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof: The three basicts are three days.

19 Yet within three days shall Pharach lift he Loan was with him: and that which he up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall cat thy flesh from off thee.

20 T And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's birth-day, that he made a feast unto all his servants; and he lifted up the bead of the chief butler, and of the chief had interpreted to them. 23 Yet did not the chief butler remember

Joseph, but forgat him.

CHAP. XLI.] Pharack's two dreams : 25 Joseph interpretth them: 33 he gively Pharaoh counsel.

38 Joseph is advanced. ND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed; and behold, he stood by the river.

2 And behold, there came up out of the river se en well-favoured kine, and fat-fleshed : and to me.

they fed in a meadow. 3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill-favoured and tean-fleshed; and stood by the other kine, upon the brink of the river. 4 And the ill-favoured and lean-fleshed kine did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke. 5 And he slept, and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good. 6 And, behold, seven thin ears, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. 7 And the seven thin cars devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pharaoh swoke, and, behold, it was a dream. 8 And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 Then spake the chief butler unto Pha-rach, saying, I do remember my faults this day.

10 Pharach was wroth with his servants, and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker.

11 And we dreamed a dream in one night. I and he : we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Hebrew, servant to the captain of the officers over the land, and take up the fifth guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams : to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was : me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 T Then Pharach sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastly out of the dun-geon; and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace. 17 And Pharach said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the 18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fat-fleshed, and well-favoured; and they fed in a meadow.

44 And Pharach said unto Joseph, I established the shell no man lift. but they were still ill-favoured, as at the beginning. So I awake.

22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, a ven ears came up in one stalk, full and good. 23 And, behold, seven ears, withered, thim, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them.

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. And I told this unto the magi cians; but there was none that could declare #

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Pharach, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharanh what he is about to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven years : and the seven good ears are seven years : the dream is one

27 And the seven thin and ill-favoured kine that came up after them, are seven years : and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind, shall be seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Egypt.

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt: and the famine shall consume the land

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land, by reason of that famine following: for it shall be very grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharnoh twice; if is because the thing is established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass. 33 Now therefore, let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharson do this, and let him appoint eart of the land of Egypt in the seven plen-

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities

36 And that food shall be for store to the land, against the seven years of famine which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine

37 And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 ¶ And Pharaoh said unto his servants. Can we find such a ens as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is?

29 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God bath shewed thee all this, there is none so discrect and wise as thou ort:

40 Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou ended. 54 And the seven years of dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said; and the dearth was in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.

41 And Pharach said unto Joseph, See, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt.

55 And, when all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharach for bread: and Pharaoh said unto all the Egyptians, Go unto Joseph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth. And Joseph opened all the store-bouses, and sold unto the Egyptians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt. 57 And all countries came into Egypt to Jeeph for to buy cora; because that the fa-mine was so sore in all lands.

CHAP. XLII. I Jacob sendeth his icu sons to buy corn in Egypt: 17 they are imprisoned by Joseph for spice.

NOW when Jacob saw that there was corn in Egypt, Jacob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in Egypt : get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may live, and not die

3 ¶ And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in Egypt.

4 But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren: for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Israel came to buy corn mong these that came : for the famine was in the land of Canaan. s And Joseph was the governor over the had, and he if was that sold to all the people of the land: and Joseph's brethren came, and boved down themselves before him with their Aces to the earth.

I And Joseph saw his brethren, and he knew knew not him. 9 And Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them. Ye are spies; to see the makedness of the land ye are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nav. my lord; but to buy food are thy servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons : we are true men, thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. 13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not. 14 And Joseph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spie :

15 Hereby ye shall be proved; By the life of Pharaoh ye shall not go forth hence except your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else, by the life of Pha ranh, surely ye are spies.

17 And he put them all together into ward three days. 18 And Joseph said unto them the third day.

This do, and live : for I fear God. 19 If we be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison :

go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:

20 But bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye And they did so. shall not die.

21 T And they said one to another, We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And Reuben answered them, Saving. Spake I not unto you, saying. Do not sin against the child? and ye would not hear; therefore, behold, also his blood is required.

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them: for he spake unto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself about from them and wept: and returned to them arnin, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way : and thus did he unto them.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and lo, it is even in my sack; and their heart failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

37 And Reuben spake unto his father, saying, Slay my two sons if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

1 Jacob is hardly persuaded to send Benjamin. 15 Joseph entertaineth his brethren.

ND the famine was sore in the land. A 2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food. 3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food;

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your prother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt yo so ill with me, as to tall the man whether ye had yet a brother ?

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, /s your father yet alive? have ye another brother? And we told him according to the tenor of these words. Could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother

8 And Jadah said unto Israel his father. Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live, and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shalt thou require him : if I bring him not unto thee. and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever.

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned this second time.

11 And their father Israel said unto thes If it must be so now, do this; Take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carr down the man a present, a little belm, and a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts and almonds.

12 And take double money in your hand: and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; peradventure it was an oversight.

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go a-

14 And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin. If I be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

15 T And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hand, and Benjamin: and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and spood before Joseph. 16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and slay, and make ready: for these men shall dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade : and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were airsid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and the said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in, that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and, behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight; and we have brought it again in our hand. 22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food : we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace be to you, fear not; your God, and the God of your father, bath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses provender

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon : for they beard that they should eat bread there.

26 ¶ And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, is your father well? the old man of whom ye spake, is he yet alive?

28 And they amwered. Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive : and they bowed down their heads, and made onelsance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Renjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me! And he said, God be gracious unto thee, my son.

30 And Jeseph made hasts; for his bewells did yearn upon his brother: and he sought! where to ween; and he entered into his chainber, and wept there.

that Joseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses. 4 dnd when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good !

15 And he said unto the people; Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives.

16 And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp

'rembled 17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinal was altogether on moke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire : and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly 19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses hake, and God answered him by a voice.

- 20 And the Losp came down upon mount Signi, on the top of the mount; and the Losp called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.

1 The allar of burnt-offering. 8 The laver of bress. 9 The court. 21 The sum of the o Peringe.

ND he made the altar of burst-offering of shittim-wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth therepr. (it was four-square,) and three cubits the height thereof.

2 And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns thereof were of the rame : and he overlaid it with brass

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar. the pots, and the shovels, and the basons, and the flesh-books, and the fire-pass; all the vestols thereof made he of brass.

4 And he made for the altar a brasen grate of net-work, under the compass thereof, be-neath unto the midst of it.

5 And he east four rings for the four ends of the grate of bears, to be places for the staves. 6 And he made the staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with brass. 7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal : he mule the altar hollow with boards 8 ¶ And he made the laver of brass, and the fact of it of brass, of the looking-glasses of the nomen assembling, which assembled at the cor of the tabernacle of the congregation. 9 % And he made the court: on the south side, southward, the hangings of the court acre of the twined lines, an hundred cubits.

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brasen sockets twenty: the books of the pillars and their ellets were of silver, 11 And for the north side the hangings were an bundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty : the books of the pillars and their filets of silver.

19 And for the cost side, costward, fifty cúbits 14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three. 15 And for the other side of the court gate. on this hand and that hand were hangings of afteen cubits, and their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 All the bangings of the court round about gere of five twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillers were of brass; the books of the pillars and their fillets?

filleted with silver. 18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needle-work, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court. 19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver and the overlaying of their chapiters and their fillets of silver. 20 And all the pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 This is the sum of the tabermacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of Moses, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aaron the priest.

22 And Bezaleel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Junah, made all that the Loup commanded Moses.

23 And with him was Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the gold that was occupied for the work, in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and mine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

26 A bekah for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vall; an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made books for the pillars, and overlaid their chapiters, and filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels

30 And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the taberna le of the congregation. and the brasen altar, and the brasen grate for it. and all the vessels of the altar.

31 And the suckets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court-gate, and all the plus of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about CHAP. XXXIX.

12 T And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the meat-offering that remaineth of the offerings of the Lord made by fire. and eat it without leaven beside the altar; for it is most holy.

13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 And the wave-breast and beave-shoulder shall ye est in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee; for they b thy due, and thy some due, which are given out of the sacrifices of peace-offerings of the cnil

dren of Israel. 15 The heave-shoulder and the wave-breast shall they bring, with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave-offering before the Long; and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, by a statute for ever; as the Long bath commanded.

16 ¶ And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin-offering, and, behold it was burnt: and he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sous of Aaron, which were left elies, mying, 17 Wherefore have ye not eaten the sinoffering in the holy place, seeing it is most holy, and God hath given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atomement for them before the Long!

18 Behold, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place; ye should indeed have eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded. 19 And Aaron said unto Moses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin-offering and their burnt-offering before the Lonn; and such things have betallen me: and Y I had eaten the sin-offering to-day, should it have been accepted in the sight of the Lonn;

20 And when Moses heard that, he was content.

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp: and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper.

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleaned two birds alive and clean, and cedar-wood, and scariet, and hysop.

And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over 6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and gled with oil for a meat-offering, and a log of the celar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hypothesis of the celar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hypothesis of the celar-wood, and shall dip them and the living bird in 22 And two turtle-doves, or two young pithe blood of the bird that was killed over the ronning water:

7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times and shall pronounce Lim clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field.

8 And he that is to be cleaned shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall tarry abroad out of his tent seven

9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he halv off his head, and his shall shave all his hair off his head, and his beard, and his eye-brows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.

10 And on the eighth day he shall take two he-lambs without blemish, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth-leals of fine flour for a mest-offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil;

Il And the priest that maketh Aim clean, shall present the man that is to be made clean, and those things, before the Load, at the door of the tabernac.e of the congregation 12 And the priest shall take one he-lamb, and offer him for a trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and wave them for a wave-offering before the Long. 13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin-offering and the burnt-offering in the holy place: for as the sinoffering is the priest's, so is the trespass-offering: it is most holy. 14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and the price shall put it upon the tip of the right car of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

15 And the priest shall take some of the lo of oil, and pour if into the palm of his own left

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleaned, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass-offering.

18 And the remnant of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed; and the priest shall make an atonoment for him before the

19 And the priest shall offer the sin-offering. and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness, and afterward he shall kill the burnt-offering.

20 And the priest shall offer the burntoffering and the meat-offering upon the altar: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21 And if he be poor, and cannot get so much; rien he shall take one lamb for a trespass-ofterior to be waved, to make an stonement for ir and one tenth-deal of fine flour min-

A death of the two sons of Aaron, when they offered before the Long, and died:

2 And the Loap said unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the vail, before the mercy-seat which is upon the ark, that he die not : for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy-seat.

3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering.

4 He shall put on the holy lines cost, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh and shall be girded with the linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall be wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.

5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel two kids of the goats for a sin-offering, and one ram for a burntoffering.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sin-offering which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself and for his house.

10 ¶ And the man that committeth adultery with enother man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

11 And the man that lieth with his father's wife, bath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death:

their blood shall be upon them.

12 And if a man lie with his daughter-inlaw, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion: their blood shall be upon them

13 If a man also lie with mankind as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death: their blood shall be upon them.

14 And if a man taxe a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

15 And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

17 And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness, it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's pakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

18 And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness, he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

19 And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for be uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity

21 And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing; he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness: they shall be childless.

22 ¶ Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them; that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, spue you not out.

23 And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nations which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.

24 But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land that floweth with milk and honey: I am the Lord your God, which have separated you from other people.

25 Ye shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean : and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creepath;

36 And ye shall be holy unto me: for I the Soap am holy, and have severed you from ether people, that ye should be mine

14 And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled; or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto t'. priest, and he shall bring her offering for incr, the tenth part of an ephan of barley-meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD. 17 And the priest shall take body water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put if into the water. 18 And the priest shall set the woman before the Load, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy-offering; and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse.

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If ne man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone acide to unclea..ness with another imitead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse : 20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be deflied, and some man hath lain with thee besides thine husband: 21 Then the priest shall charge the woman with an cath of cursing; and the priest shall ga, unto the woman, The Lond make thee a carse and an oath among thy people, when belly to swell;

22 And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. And the woman shall say, Amen, amen. 23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water; 21 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter ikto her, and become bitter.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousyofering out of the woman's hand, and shall the days of his separation, and shall bring a wave the offering before the Loan, and offer it upon the altar.

25 And the priest shall take an handful of the offcring, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husland, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter. and her bully shall swell, and her thigh shall ent: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

26 And if the woman be not dealed, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall enacrive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife and engine to another instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh open him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the Lord. and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from ini-quity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity. CHAP. VI.

I The law of the Nazarite. 24 The form 3 blessing the people. ND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel. and say unto them. When either man or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the Lorns 3 He shall separate himself from wine, and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried

4 All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine-tree, from the kernels even to the busk. 5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head; until the days be fulfilled, in the which he reparateth himself unto the Loan, he shall he inly, and shall let the locks of the hair of his nead grow.

unto the LORD, he shall come at no dead body 7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die; because the consecration of his God is upon his head. 8 All the days of his separation he is holy unto the Loan. 9 And if any man die very suddenly by him. the Loud doth make thy thigh to rot, and thy and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it. 10 And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. 11 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day. 12 And he shall consecrate unto the Lord lamb of the first year for a trespass-offering; but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled. 13 ¶ And this is the law of the Nazarite; When the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation; 14 And he shall offer his offering unto the LORD, one he-lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt-offering, and one ewelamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace-offerings. 15 And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offer-

16 And the priest shall bring them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin-offering, and his burnt-offering.

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the Lord, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat-offering, and his drinkoffering. 18 And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tabermacle of the congregation; and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace-offerings. 19 And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his sevaration is shaven :

20 And the priest shall wave them for a wave-offering before the Lord: this is holy for the priest, with the wave-breast and beaveshoulder: and after that, the Nazarite may drink wine.

21 This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the LORD for his separation, besides that that his hand shall get: according to the vow which he vowed, so be must do after the law of his separation.

1 How the lumps are to be lighted. 5 The consecration of the Leviles: 23 the age and time of their service.

ND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
2 Speak unto Azron, and say unto him,

When thou lightest the lumps; the sexent mps shall give light over against the candestick.

3 And Aaren did so: he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick; as the Loro commanded Moses.

4 And this work of the candlestick was of beaten gold; unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work : according urto the pattern which the Lorn had showed Moses, so he made the candlestick.

5 T And the Loan spake unto Moses, say-

5 Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

7 And thus shalt thou do note them, to cleanae them : Sprinkle water of purifyin? upon them, and let them shave all their flesis, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his mest-offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin-offering.

9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacie of the congregation : and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together.

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the Loup, and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Asrow shall offer the Levites before the LORD, for an offering of the children of Israel, that they may execute the service of the Lord.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, unto the Loan, to make an atonement for the Levites. 13 And thou shall set the Levites before soffering unto the Loap.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be mine.

16 And after that shall the Levites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation and thou shalt cleanes them, and offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of such s open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the chiktren of Israel, have I taken them unto me

17 For all the first-born of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast : on the ay that I amote every first-born in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the first-born of the children of Israel. 19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron, and to his sons, from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the ehildren of Israel in the taberpacle of the rongregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel; that there he no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the anctuary.

20 And Moses, and Azron, and all the conpregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did the children of Israel unto them.

21 And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes : and Aaron offer ed them as an offering before the Loap; an Aarnn made au stonement for them to cleanee them.

22 And after that went the Lavites is to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron, and before his sons : as the LOAD had commanded Moses concurning the Levites, so did they unto them.

23 7 And the Loan spake unto Moseau mying.

24 This is if that belongeth unto the Levites; from twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service. of the tabernacle of the congregation : 25 And from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the service thereof.

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. halt thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

1 The passover enjoined. 15. A cloud guidely the Israclites. A ND the Lorn spake unto Mores in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, 2 Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at his appointed season.

3 in the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and accord-ing to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Larael, that they should keep the passover.

5 And they kept the passover on the four-teenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinni : according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And there were cartain men who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day; and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day.

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man; wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the Logo in his appointed season among the children of largel ? 8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will bear what the Loan will command concerning you.

9 ¶ And the Lord speke unto Moses, saying, 10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you, or of your posterity, shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey sfar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the Lorn.

11 The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and out it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, now break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the persover they shall keep it. 13 But the man that is clean, and is not la a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut of from among his people; because he brought not the ofering of the Lord in his appointed season. that man shall bear his sin.

15 ¶ Aud on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony : and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire until the morning.

16 So it was always: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the Loap the children of Israel journeyed: and at the com-mandment of the Loan they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not. 20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacie: according to the commandment of the Loan they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the Loan they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud abode from a control of the loan they journeyed.

from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and jour-neyed not; but when it was taken up they journeyed. 23 At the commandment of the Lord they rested in their tents, and at the commandment of the Lord they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the Lond by the hand of Moses.

СНАР. Х. The use of the silver trumpets. 33 Moses' blessing.

ND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, A 2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them, that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet. then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time. then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their justiney: they shall blow an alarm dren of Israel, according to their armiss, for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not sound an alarm.

.8 And the sons of Aaron the priests shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

blow an alarmowith the trumpets; and ve shall be remembered before the Loap your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies.

10 Also in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt-offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace-offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God : I am the Load your God.

Il ¶ And it came to pass, on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony. 12 And the children of Israel took their journeys out of the wilderness of Sinal; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.

13 And they first took their journey, according to the commandment of the Loan by the hand of Moses. la T In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Judah, according to their armles: and over his host sees Nahshon the son of Amminadab. 15 And over the host of the tribe of the seat me : 30 But if the Loap make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that sppertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the LORD. 31 And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them :

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and awallowed them up, and their houses, and all the men that apperlained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that appertained to them. went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

36 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 37 Speak unto Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they are hellowed.

38 The causers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar; for they of-fered them before the Loan, therefore they are hallowed : and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had bouse of Levi, was budded, and brought forth offered; and they were made broad plates for buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded ala covering of the altar:

Moses, and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the Lone.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses, and against Aaron, that they looked toward the taberacle of the congregation : and, behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the Long appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 TAnd the Loan spake unto Moses, saying, 45 Get ye up from among this congregation that I may consume them as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces.

46 T And Moses said unto Asron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incesse, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement forthem: for there is wrath gone out from the Loan; the plague is begun.

47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation. and, behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made as atonement for the people.

48 And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. 49 Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand and saven hundred, besides them that died about the matter of Korah-50 And Aaron returned unto Moses, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed. CHAP. XVII.

I Aaron's among all the rods of the tribes, only flourisheth, and is laid up for a monument.

2 And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation, before the testi-mony, where I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, whom I shall choose, shall blossom : and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel whereby they murmur against you.

6 ¶ And Moses spake unto the children of Israel; and every one of their princes gave him a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods:

and the rod of Aaron was among their rods. 7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD, in the tabernacle of witness

8 And it came to pass, that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of wituess: and, behold, the rod of Aaron, for the monde.

20 T And the LORD spake unto Astron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, meither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part, and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 And, behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance. for their service which they serve, even the service of the tabernacle of the congreration.

22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the coagregation, lest they bear sin, and die. 23 But the Levites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity. It shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inberitance.

24 But the tithes of the children of Israel. which they offer or an heave-offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit : therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times.

5 And one shall burn the helfer in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall be burn.

6 And the priest shall take cedar-wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast if into the midst of the burning of the helfer.

7 Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place; and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel, for a water of separation; it is a purification gation of the Lord into this wilderness, that for sin.

10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that so-

ron's death. THEN came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin, in the first month : and the people abode in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there.

2 And there was no water for the congregation: and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron.

3 And the people chode with Moses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had died when our brethren died before the Long! 4 And why have ye brought up the congrewe and our cattle should die there? 5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of Egypt, to bring us in unto this evil place ? It is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they fell upon their faces; and the glory of the Loan appeared unto them.

7 ¶ And the Loan spake unto Moses, say-

! Fows are not to be broken. 9 Of a widow's pow, or her that is divorced. ND Moses spake unto the heads of the

A tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying. This is the thing which the Loan hath tommanded. 2 If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or mear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he thall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth;

4 And her father hear her vow and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her state shall hold his peace at her; then all her tows shall stand, and every bond wherewith the hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows, or of her bonds, wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand : and the Loup shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all an husband when she vowed, or uttered aught out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then they dwelt, and all their goodly casties, with ber vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith hire she bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband disallow her on the day that he heard it; then he shall make her wow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect : and the Loan shall forgive her.

9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.
10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an

11 And her husband heard if, and held his peare at her, and disallowed her not; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband bath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand; her husband hath made them void; and the Loan shall forgive

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to 18 But all the women-children that have affect the soul, her husband may establish it, not known a man by lying with him, keep or her husband may make it void

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he osta-blisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them

15 But if he shall any ways make them void, after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes which the Lors commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house. CHAP. XXXI.

1 The Midionites spoiled, and Balanm slain.

ND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites; afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the Lord of Midian.

4 Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them, and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand. 7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the Loan commanded Moses; and they slew all the males. 8 And they slew the kings of Midian, besides the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian : Balaam also, the son of Beor, they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein

11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan, near Jericho. 13 T And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the battle. 15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye save, all the women alive? 16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the Loap in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Loan 17 Now therefore, kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him.

The dividing of the prey. 19 And do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any siain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean; nevertheless, it shall be purified with the water of separation; and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water.

24 And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and after-ward ye shall come into the camp.

25 T And the Lord spake unto Moses,

26 Take the sum of the prey that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation:

27 And divide the prey into two parts, between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation;

23 And levy a tribute unto the Lorp of the men of war which went out to battle: one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the

29 Take it of their half, and give if unto Eleazar the priest, for an heave-offering of

30 And of the children of Israel's half thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Levites, which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the Long.

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep.

33 And threescore and twelve thousand

And threescore and one thousand 34

35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.

36 And the balf, which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep:

37 And the Lord's tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen

38 And the beeves were thirty and six thousand, of which the Loap's tribute was threescore and twelve.

39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred, of which the Lond's tribute es threescore and one.

40 And the persons were sixteen thousand, of which the house tribute was thirty and two persons.

41 And Moses gave the tribute which was the Lord's heave-offering unto Eleazar the priest; as the Loan commanded Moses.

42 And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided from the men that 43 (Now the half that pertained unto the congregation, was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred sheep,

44 And thirty and six thousand beeves. 45 And thirty thousand asses and five hundred, 46 And sixteen thousand persons,)

47 Even of the children of Israel's half. Moses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Le vites which kept the charge of the tabernacle of the Loap; as the Loar summanded Moses.

48 § And the officers which were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto

Moses:

49 And they said unto Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our charge, and there lacketh not one man of us.

50 We have therefore brought an oblation for the Loan, what every man hath gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, ear-rings, and tablets, to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD. 51 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, even all wrought jewels.

52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to the Loan, of the captains of thousands, and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels.

53 (For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.)

54 And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tabernacle of the congregation, for a memorial for the children of Israel before the Loan. CHAP. XXXII.

The Reubenites and Gadiles sue for their inheritance on that side Jordan

OW the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gifead, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle; 2 The children of Gad and the children of

Reuben came and spake unto Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying,

3 Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Shebam, and Nebo, and Beon,

4 Even the country which the Loap smote before the congregation of Israel, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle.

5 Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over Jordan.

ben, and unto half the tribe of Manasseb the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of Bashan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

34 T And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35 And Atroth, Shophan, and Jazzer, and Jozhehah.

36 And Beth-nimrah, and Beth-haran, fenced cities; and folds for sheep. 37 And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Eleaieh, and Kirjethaim, 38 And Nebo, and Baal-meon, (their names being changed,) and Shibmah: and gave other names unto the cities which they builded. 39 And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorite which was in it. 40 And Moses gave Gilead unto Machir the son of Manassen; and he dwelt therein. 41 And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took the small towns thereof, and called them

Havoth-jair. 42 And Nobah went and took Kenath, and the villages thereof, and called it Nobah, after his own name. CHAP XXXIII.

1 Two and forty journeys of the Israelites. 50 The Canaunites are to be destroyed.

THESE are the journeys of the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt, with their armies, under the hand of Moses and Auron.

2 And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys, by the commandment of the Lours and these are their journeys according to their goings out.

3 And they departed from Rameses in the first mouth, on the fifteenth day of the first month: on the morrow after the passover, the folds for your sheep; and do that which hath children of Israel went out with an high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians.

4 (For the Egyptians buried all their firstborn, which the Lord had smitten among them : upon their gods also the Loan executed judgments)

5 And the children of Israel removed from Rameses, and pitched in Succoth. 6 And they departed from Succoth, and pitched in Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness. 7 And they removed from Etham, and turned again unto Pi-hahiroth, which is before dol.

8 And they departed from before Pi-hahiroth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and went three days journey in the wilderness of Etham, and pitched in March.

9 And they removed from Marab, and came unto Elim : and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and threescore and ten paim-trees; and they pitched there. 10 And they removed from Elim, and encamped by the Red sea 11 And they removed from the Red sea, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin.

12 And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Doph-kah. 13 And they departed from Dophiah, and encamped in Alush.

Is And they removed from Alush, and encamped at Rephidim, where was no water for the people to drink.

15 And they departed from Rephidim, and pitched in the wilderness of Sinai. 16 And they removed from the desert of

17 And they departed from Kibroth-hattaavah, and encamped at Hazeroth. 18 And they departed from Hazereth, and pitched in Rithmah. 19 And they departed from Rithmah, and

36 And they removed from Exion-gaber, and pitched in the wilderness of Zin, which is ka lesh. 37 And they removed from Kadesh, and pitched in mount Hor, in the edge of the land or Edom. 33 And Aaron the priest went up into mount at the commandment of the Loan, the children of Israel were come out of the and the going forth thereof shall be from the lind of Egypt, in the first day of the fifth south to Kadesh-barnes, and shall go on to Hamonth.

39 And Aaron was an hundred and twenty and three years old when he died in mount

40 And king Arad the Canaanite, which dwelt in the south, in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel. 41 And they departed from mount Hor, and pitched in Zalmonah. 42 And they departed from Zalmonah, and pitched in Punon. 43 And they departed from Punon, and pitched in Oboth. 44 And they departed from Oboth, and pitched in lie-abarim, in the border of Moab 45 And they departed from Iim, and pitched in Dibon gad.

46 And they removed from Dibon-gad, and encamped in Almon-diblathaim.

47 And they removed from Almon-dibla-thaim, and pitched in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo. 48 And they departed from the mountains of Abarim, and pitched in the plains of Moab, by Jordan sear Jericho. 49 And they pitched by Jordan, from Bethjesimoth even unto Abel-shittim, in the plains of Moab. 50 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jordan sear Jeriche, saying, 31 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye are passed over Jordan into the land of Canean;

52 Then ye shall drive out all the inhabit-ants of the land from before you, and destroy all their pictures, and destroy all their molten images, and quite pluck down all their high places 53 And ye shall disposees the inhabitants of the land, and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it.

54 And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families; and to the more ye shall give the more inheritance, and to the lewer ye shall give the less inheritance: every man's interitance shall be in the place where his lot faileth; according to the tribes of your fathers ye shall inherit.

55 But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them shall be pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell.

56 Moreover, it shall come to pass, that I shall do unto you as I thought to do unto

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know, that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every mord that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Losp doth man live.

4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee. neither did thy foot swell, these forty years. 5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee. 6 Therefore thou shalt keep the command-

HEAR, O Israel: Thou art to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great, and fenced up to heaven;

2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand be-fore the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the Loan thy God is he which goeth over before thee as a consuming fire; he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face : so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the Loap hath said unto thee.

4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the Loan thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the Loan hath brought me in to possess this land; but for the wickedness of these nations the Long doth drive them out from before thee.

5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations the Loap thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the Lord sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiff-necked people. 7 T Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the Lorp thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the Lorp.

9 When I was gone up into the mount, to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the Loap made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights: I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the Loap delivered unto me two tables of stone, written with the finger of Gnd; words which the LORD spake with you in the mount, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly.

15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire : and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands. 16 And I looked, and behold, ye had sinned against the Loap your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the Loap had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes

18 And I fell down before the Loan, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wick-edly in the sight of the Loap, to provoke him to anger.

19 (For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you.) But the Loan bearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the Lord was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time. 21 And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground if very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah. ye provoked the Loan to wrath.

23 Likewise, when the Lorp sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the Loan your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious against the Loan from the day that I knew you. 25 Thus I fell down before the Loan forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the Loap had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the Loap, and said, O Lord Gon, destroy not thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeem ed through thy greatness, which thou bast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 Even as the roe-buck and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them; the unclean and the clean shall est of them alike. 23 Only be sure that thou eat not the blood:

for the blood is the life; and thou may est not eat the life with the flesh. 24 Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water. 25 Thou shalt not eat it; that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the Loap.

26 f Only thy holy things which thou hast, and thy vows thou shalt take, and go unto the place which the Loan shall choose.

27 And thou shalt offer thy burnt-offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the Loap thy God: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the Loap thy God: and thou shalt out the flesh. 28 Observe and hear all these words which I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the Loan thy God.

23 When the Loan thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their land;

to place his name there.

Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it:

Shall judge the people with just judgment, thou seven days shalt not wrest judgment; thou seven days shalt not persons, neither take a gift; therewith, even the bread of affliction; (for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in pervert the words of the righteous. haste:) that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coasts seven days; neither shall there any thing of the firsh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning.

5 Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the Loap thy God giveth thee:

6 But at the place which the Loan thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt.

7 And thou shalt roast and eat if in the place which the Loap thy God shall choose; and thy teats.

Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread. and on the seventh day shall be a solemn as- in transgressing his covenant, 9 ¶ Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corp.

10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the Lord thy God with a tribute of a free-will-offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, according

as the Lord thy God hath blessed thee: 11 And thou shalt rejoice before the Loro thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and he stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen to place his name there serve and do these statutes.

13 T'Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacies seven days, after that thou hast ga-thered in thy corn and thy wine.

14 And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15 Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn reast unto the Lord thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose; because the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy increase, and in all the works of thine hands: therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

16 Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the Lord empty which he bath given thee.

CHAP. XXIX. 2 An exhortation to obedience. 29 Secret things belong unto God.

THESE are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

2 ¶ And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the Loan did before your eyes in the land of Egypt, unto Pharaon, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land : 3 The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles: 4 Y. t the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and cars to hear, unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

3 The Loap thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the Lord math said.

4 And the Lord shall do unto them as he did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites; and to the land of them whom he de-

5 And the Loan shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.

6 Be strong, and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them : for the Loan thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 Y And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong, and of a good courage : for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath worn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

law; 13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the Lord your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess

14 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabermacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the Loap appeared in the taternacle in a pillar of a cloud; and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacie. 16 T And the Loan said unto Moses, Behold.

thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day. Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?

18 And I will surely hide my face in that day, for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I sware unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

21 And it shall come to pass, when many. evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they go about, even now, before I have

23 And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, Be strong, and of a good courage : for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I sware unto them; and I will be with thee.

24 T And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished.

25 That Moses commanded the Levites which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, 26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

27 For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and mineful, and hast for otten God that formed earth to record against them.

24 And Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them unto the vallev of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us ! the Lord shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day. So the Lorn turned from the fierconess of his anger: wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of Achor unto this day.

32 And he wrote there upon the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel.

1 The kings combine against Israel. 3 The Gibeonites obtaining a league by craft, 23 are condemard to perpetuel bondage.

ND it came to pass when all the kings A which were on this side Jordan, in the hills, and in the vallies, and in all the coasts of the great sea over against Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard thereof.

2 That they gathered themselves together to fight with Joshua, and with Israel, with one gation ; accord.

3 T And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done unto Jericho and

4 They did work willly, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors; and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine-bottles, old, and rent, and bound up;

5 And old shoes and clouted upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry and mouldy.

6 And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gligal, and said unto him, and to the men servant Moses to give you all the land, and 101 now therefore make ye a league with us.

7 And the men of Israel said unto the Hivites, Peradventure ye dwell among us; and how shall we make a league with you!

C And they said unto Joshua. We are thy servants. And Joshua said unto them, Who are ye? and from whence come ye?

9 And they said unto him, From a very far country thy servants are come, Legause of the name of the Lord thy God: for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did in

Ezypt, 10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon, and to Og king of

Bashan, which mas at Ashtaroth. 11 Wherefore our elders, and all the inhabitants of our country, spake to us, saying, Take victuals with you for the journey, and ney.

14 And the men took of their victuals, and 15 And Joshua made peace with them, and made a league with them to let them live:

and the princes of the congregation sware unto them. 16 And it came to pass at the end of three days, after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them. 17 And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjath-Jearim. 18 And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes.

19 But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the Long God of Israel: now therefore, we may not touch them.

20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us, because of the oath which we sware unto them.

21 And the princes said unto them, Let them live; but let them be hevers of wood and drawers of water unto all the congreas the princes had promised there.

22 9 And Joshua called for them, and he spake unto them, saying, Wherefore have ye beguiled us, saying, We are very far from you; when ye dwell among us? 23 Now therefore ye are cursed; and there shall none of you be freed from being bond-

1 Five kings war against Gibson: 8 Joshua rescueth it. 12 The run and moon stand still al the word of Joshua.

NOW it came to pass, when Adoni-zodec king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed K; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the in-habitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel. and were among them:

2 That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof acre mighty.

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedes king of Jerusa-lem sent unto Hoham king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Japhia king of Lachish, and unto Debir king of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibson; for it hath made peace with Joshua, and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war king of Eglon. against it.

8 T And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saving, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 T And the Loan said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand: there shall not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

10 And the Loap discomfited them before israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth-horoz, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah.

11 And it came to pass, as they fied from before Israel, and were in the going down to day Beth-horon, that the Loan cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and and they died: they were more which died the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, with hallstones than they whom the children and all the souls that were therein; he of Israel slew with the sword.

18 And Joshua said. Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them:

19 And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities; for the Long your God hath delivered them into your hand.

20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace : none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the Logo do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

CHAP. IV. I Deberak and Barak deliver Israel from Jabin and Sisera. 21 Jael killeth Sisera.

ND the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the Loap when Ehud was dead 2 And the Loan sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles. 3 And the children of Israel cried unto the Loan; for he had nine bundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And Deberah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged largel at that time.

5 And she dwelt under the palm-tree of Deborah, between Ramah and Beth-el, in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh-naphtali, and said un to him, Hath not the Loap God of Israe commanded, saying, Go, and draw toward mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtall, and of the children of Zebulun!

7 And I will draw unto thee to the river Kishon, Sizera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his charlots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said unto her, If then wilt with me, then I will go; but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee; notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the Loan shall sell Sisers into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

19 ¶ And Barak called Zebulup and Naphtall to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thourand mea at his feat; and Deborah went up with him.

H Now Heber the Kenke, which was of the children of Hohab the father-in-law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zannaim, which is by Kedsh. 12 And they showed Sinera that Barek the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor. 13 And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosbeth of the Gentiles unto the river of Kishon.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, 4 this to the day in which the LORD hath delivered Sizera into thine hand: is not the Lean gone out before thee! So Barak west down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand

19 And he said unto her. Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty: and she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent : and it shall be, when any man doth come and inquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say. No.

21 Then Jael, Heber's wife, took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and vent softly unto him, and smote the mail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: (for he was fast asleep, and weary:) so he died.

23 And behold as Barak pursued Sisera. Jack came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will show thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples

Red sea, and came to Kadesh:

17 Then Israel sem messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab;

but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh. 18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Mosb, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Mosh: for Arnon was the border of

Moab. 18 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon: and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land unto my place.

20 But Sihou trusted not Israel to pass through his coast; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and 19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gileah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty! and two thousand men.

22 And the people the men of Israel enin array, in the place where they put themselves to array the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went up. and wept before the Loan until even, and asked counsel of the Loan, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the Loan said,

25 And Benjamin went forth against them
the second day, and destroyed out of Gibean the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 Then all the children of Israel and all the people went up, and game unto the bouse of God and wept, and sat there before the Lord, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel inquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days;

28 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the Loan said, Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver them into thine hand. 29 And Israel set liers in wait round about

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeab, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they becan to smite of the people, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field,

33 And all the men of Israel rore up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar; and the liers in wait of lerael came forth out of their places, even out of the meadons of Gibeah.

24 And there came against Gibrah tea thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil nas near them.

35 And the Loan smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and hive thousand and an hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set besine Gibeah.

27 And the Hers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah: and the liers in wait drew themrelves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign be-that they should make a great flame with smoke to rise up out of the city. 39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill hold, there were none of the inhabitants of of the mea of Israel about thirty persons; for Jabesh gilead there. they said. Surely they are smitten down be-fore us. as is the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they enclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and troue them down in the rock Rimmon, and to call peaceably with ease, over against Gibeah toward the

4 That the Loan called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here sm I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down sgain. And he went and lay down.

6 And the Louw called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; He down that when it cometh among us, it may save us again.

7 Now Samuel did not yet know the Loan,

8 And the Lorp called Samuel again the third time. And he arose, and went to Eli. and said, Here am I; for thou didst sail me. And Eli perceived that the Loan had called the child. 9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down; and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, Loan; for thy servant

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. 6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said. What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews! And they understood that the ark of the Lung was come into the can 15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes were dim, that he could not see.

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled to-day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my son !

And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines; and there hath been also a great slaughter among the eople; and the two sons also. Hophul and Phineless, are dead; and the ark of God is taken. 18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died; for he was an old man, and heavy: and he had judged Israel forty years.

19 And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas wife, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains came upon perverted judgment.

- Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah,
- 5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy some walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the pations.

6 T But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And

Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

7 And the Loup said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee : for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done, since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

Samuel, alroad. 27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on.) but stand thou still a while, that I may shew thee the word of God. CHAP. X. 1 Samuel anotateth Saul: 2 he confirmeth him by prediction of three signs. 9 Saul's heart ts changed, and he prophesicit.

THEN Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured the upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the Lord hath anointed thee to be captain over his inheritance? 2 When thou art departed from me to-may, then thou shalt find two men by Rachel'a sepulche, in the border of Benjamin, at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee. The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: Samuel came out against them, for to go up to and lo, thy father bath left the care of the asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son ? 3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine: 4 And they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread, which thou shalt receive of their bands.

5 After that thou shalt come to the bill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines : and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place, with a psaltery, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they shall prophesy:

6 And the Spirit of the Lord will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them. and shalt be turned into another man. 7 And let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, that thou do as occasion shall serve thee; for God is with thee. 8 And thou shult go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt-offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings: seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do.

9 ¶ And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart : and all those signs came to pass that day.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them. 11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw, that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets? 12 And one of the same place answered, and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets! 13 And when he had made an end of pro-his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, people; and all the people lifted up their To seek the asses: and when we saw that they voices, and wept. were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's nucle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake he told him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel called the people together unto the Losp to Mizpeh;

18 And said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the Loan God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

19 And ye have this day rejected your God. who himself caved you out of all your adversities, and your tribulations; and ye have said unto him. Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore, present yourselves before the Loan by your teles, and by your thousands. 20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Ful the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him. he could not be found.

22 Therefore they inquired of the LORD forther, if the man should yet come thither. And the Loan answered, behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff.

23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was bigher than any of the people, from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See e him whom the Loan bath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? and all the people shouted, and said. God mve the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and hid it up before the Loan. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 ¶ And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched. 27 But the children of Belial said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him so presents: but he held his peace.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosever cometh not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done not his exen. And the fear of the Loap fell on the people, and they came out with one consent.

8 And when he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hunered thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

11 And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammon-ites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were cattered, so that two of them were not left together.

12 T And the people said unto Samuel. Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? Bring the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to-day the Loap hath wrought salvation in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and thereithey made Saul king before the Lond in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed secrifices of peace-offerings before the Loup; and there Saul and all the men of Esrael rejoiced greatly. CHAP. XII.

7 Now therefore, stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lord of all the righteous acts of the Loan, which he did to you and to your fathers. 8 When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the Loap, then the Loap sent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made reigned two years over Israel, 2 Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel; whereof two thousand were with Saul in Michmann, and in mount Beth-el, and a thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeah of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he seat every man to his tent. 3 And Jonathan smote the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba; and the Philistines heard of it. And Saul blew the trum pet throughout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrews hear. 4 And all Israel heard say that Saul had smitten a garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people were called to-

Philistines. And the people were called to-gether after Saul to Gigal. 5 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand charlots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea-shore In multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, castward from Beth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in high places, and in pits. 7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead: as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. 8 ¶ And he tarried seven days, according 12 Therefore said I, The Philistines will i come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I tave not made supplication unto the Loan: I forced myself therefore, and offered a burntoffering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the com-mandment of the Loan thy God, which he commanded thee; for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for OTOP.

14 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: the Loap bath sought him a man after his wn heart, and the Loan bath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD com-

16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the sople that were present with them, abode in Gibeah of Benjamin : but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17 ¶ And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to Operat. unto the land of Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to Beth-horon: and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the valley of Zeboim, toward the wilderness.

10 T Now there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: (for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

2) Yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to sharpen the goads.

22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan : but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 And the garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Michmash.

4 ¶ And between the passages by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philisone side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The forefront of the one was situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against Gibeah.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them. 9 If they say thus unto us, Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them. 10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the Load hath de-livered them into our hand; and this shall be a sign unto us. 11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves. 12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armour-bearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing And Jonathan said unto his armour-hearer, Come up after me: for the Loan hath delivered them into the hand of Israel. 13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-bearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter which Jonathan and his armour-bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were an half-acre of land, which a yoke of oren might plow.

15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled: and the earth quaked : so it was a very great trembling

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked: and behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold Jonathan and his armour-bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Abiah, Bring hither the ark of God: (for the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.)

19 ¶ And it came to pass, while Saul talk ed unto the priest, that the noise that was in. the bost of the Philistines went on and increased; and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw were faint. 29 Then said Jonathan, My father liath troubled the land : see, I pray you, how mine cy es have been enlightened, because I tasted

a little of this honey;

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines ?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmath to Ajalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoll, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood.

33 T Then they told Saul, saying, behold, the people sin against the Loap, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day. 34 Aud Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the Loan in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul built an altar unto the Lorn: the same was the first altar that he built unto the Lond.

36 T And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let un not leave a man of them. And they mid, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then mid the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, Whatsoever thy soul desireth, I will even do if for thee. 5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to-morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat : but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even. 6 If thy father at all miss me, then say,

David earnestly asked leave of me, that he might run to Beth-lehem his city; for there is a yearly sacrides there for all the family.

7 If he say time, it is well; thy servant shall have peace; but if he be very wroth, then be sure that evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the Loun with thee : notwithstanding, if there be in me iniquity, elsy me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father!

9 And Jonathan said, Fer be it from thee: thou deceived me so, and sent sway mine for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee? 10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me ! or what if thy father answer thes roughly!

11 ¶ And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about to-morrow any time, or the third day, and behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and shew it thee:

13 The Loap do so, and much more to Jonathan; but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace; and the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father. 14 And thou shalt not only, while yet I live, shew me the kindness of the Loan, that I die not: 15 But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever; no, not when every one from the face of the earth. 16 So Jonathan made a constant with the house of David, saying, Let the Lond even require it at the hand of David's evenies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to sweet again, because he loved him : for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, To-morrow 24 is the new moon; and thou shalt be missed, be-and David's place was supty.

28 Nevertheless, Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him: he is not clean; surely he is

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, Thou son of the perverse rebellious moman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be esta-blished, nor thy kingdom: wherefore so send and fetch him unto me, for he shall surely 32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father. and said unto him, Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 And Saul cast a javelin at him to smite him; whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in flerce anger, and did cut no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

1 Companies resort to David at Adullam. Doeg accuseth Atimelech. 17 Saul commandelh to bill the priests.

AVID therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave Adulam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard if, they went down thither to him.

2 And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, guthered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them; and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 T And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab. Let my father, and my mother, I pray thee. come forth, sad be with you, till I know what God will do for me. 4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

5 T And the prophet Gad said unto David, abide not in the hold; depart, and get thece into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 T When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, now Saul abode in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites: will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my son bath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or sheweth unto me that my son bath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

Then answered Doeg the Edomite. (which was set over the servants of Saul.) and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub.

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said. And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son-inlaw, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Did I then begin to inquire of God for him? Be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, less or more

16 And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house.

17 T And the king said unto the footmen that stood about him, Turn and slay the priests of the Loan; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fied, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and slew on that day fourscore and five persons that did wear a linen ephod.

19 And Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 T And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David.

21 And Abiather shewed David that Saul had slain the Loau's pricets.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew if that day, when Doer the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul :- I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not: for he that secketh my life seeketh thy life: but with me thou skalt be in safeguard.

1 Samuel dieth. 10 David provoked to destroy Nabal. 14 Abigail, by her wisdom, preventeth 37 Kabal dieth.

ND Samuel died; and all the Israelites A were gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

2 And there was a man in Maon, whose pessessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thourand sheep. and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail; and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man maschurlish and evil in his doings: and he was of the bouse of Caleb.

4 ¶ And David heard in the wilderness that

Nabal did shear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my same :

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have beard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we hart them not, beither was there aught chissing unto them, all the while they were in Carmei.

your in thine eyes: for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

10 T And Nabal at - cred David's servants, and said, Who is David and who is the son of Jesse! There be many servants now-a-days that break away every man from his master. 11 Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give if unto men whom I know not whence they be? 12 So David's young men turned their way, and went again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David abode by the stuff.

14 T But one of the young men told Abi gail, Nabal's wife, saying. Behold, David sent master; and he railed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields :

16 They were a wall unto us both by night keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thos wilt do: for evil is determined against our master, and against all his nousehold: for he is such a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine. and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

19 And she said upto her servants. Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and behold. David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that perfained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good.

22 So and more also de God unto the enemice of David, if I leave of all that pertain to and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, 24 And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, wpon me let this iniquity be: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid. 25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal:, for as his name is, so to be; Nabal to his sense, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw come to Abignii, to Carmel, they spake unto not the young men of my lord, whom thou her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take didst send.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the Loan hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now le, thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Kabal. 27 And now this ble and, which thine hand-maid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord. 28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handwaid: for the Loap will certainly make my ford a sure house; because my lord fight-eth the battles of the Lond, and evil bath not been found in thee all thy days.

29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the Lorp thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall be sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass, when the Loan shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he bath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel:

31 That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart auto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the Logo shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

32 ¶ And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me :

33 And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

34 For in very deed, as the Loan God of Israel liveth, which bath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal, by the morning light, any that pisseth against the wall.

35 So David received of her hand that which whe had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

36 T And Abigail came to Nabal; and be-hold, he held a feast in his house like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife bad told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And it came to pass about ten days ofter, that the Loap smote Nabal. that he died.

39 ¶ And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Loup, that hath pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the Lond hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. 9 And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not : for who can stretch forth his hand against the Long's anointed, and be guiltless? 10 David said furthermore, As the LORD liveth, the Loap shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend inte battle, and perish.

II The Long forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the Lonu's ancieted : but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his belster, and the cruse of water, and let us ge.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw if, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the Loan was fullen

13 Then David went over to the other hold, even David with his two wives, Ahiside, and stood on the top of an hill afar oil; a great space being between them :

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not Abner? Then Abner answered and said,

Who art thou that criest to the king? 15 And David said to Abner. Art not thou a valuat man? and who is like to thee in-Israel? Wherefore then hast thou not kept Israel ? thy lord the king! for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord. 16 This thing is not good that thou hast cone. As the Lond liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, the Lond's anoissed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that nas at his bolster. 17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said,

Is this thy voice, my son David? And David taid, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have

I done! or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. Loan have stirred thee up against me. let him accept an offering; but if they be the children a road to-day? And David said, Against the of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods.

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD; for the king of Israel is come out to seek a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 Then said Saul, I have singed : return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my sout was precious in thine eyes this day; behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 The Lond render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness; for the Long delivered thee into my hand to-day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the Loup's anointed.

24 And behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the Loxo, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation. 25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed & thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

3 T Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

4 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem . and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilbon. 5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly trembled. 6 And when Saul inquired of the Loap, the Loap answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.

7 ¶ Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that bath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her.

8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by might: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee.

1 Nathan's parable. 13 David confesseth he sin, and is pardoned. 24 Solomon is born 26 Rabbah is taken.

A ND the Loan sent Nathan unto Pavid: and he came unto him, and said unto him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, ar. the other poer.

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds:

3 But the poor men had nothing, save one little ewe-lamb, which he had bought, and nourished up; and it grew up together with him, and with his children: it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him: but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As the Loan liveth, the man that hath done this thing shall surely die:

6 And he shall restore the lamb fourfeld. because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

7 T And Nathan said to David, Thou are the map. Thus saith the Loap God of Israel. I anointed thee king over Israel, and I de-livered thee out of the band of Sauk;

8 And I gave thee thy master's house, and . thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and, if that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things.

9 Wherefore last thou despised the mandment of the Loan, to do evil in his sight? Thou hast killed Urish the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of the Children of Ammon.

10 Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thine house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be thy wife.

11 Thus saith the Lorn, Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eye and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall tie with thy wives in the sight of this sun.

12 For thou didst if secretly ; but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun. 13 And David said unto Nathan, I have sinned against the Load. And Nathan-said unto David, The Loan also hath put away thy sin; thou shalt not die.

14 Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast iven great occasion to the enemies of the Loan to blaspheme, the child also that is born unto thee shall surely die.

15 ¶ And Nathan departed unto his house: and the Loan struck the child that Uriah's wife bare unto David, and it was very sick.

16 David therefore besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night upon the earth.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he est bread with

19 But when David saw that his servants whirpered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants,

Is the child dead? And they said. He is dead 20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the Loan, and worshipped : then be came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did est.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? Thou didst fast and weep for the child while it was alive; but when the child was dead thou didst rise and eat bread 22 And he said. While the child was yet alive I fasted and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the child may live ? 23 But now he is dead, wherefere should I fact ? Can I bring him back again ? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

24 ¶ And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her and she bare a son, and he called his name Solomon; and the Loan loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet, and he called his name Jedidiah, because of the Loan.

25 ¶ And Josh fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messangers to David. and asid, I have fought against Rabbah, and have be done in Israel: do not thou this folly taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; lest I take the city, and it be called after my name.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against his head, (the weight whereof mas a talent of it, and took it. 30 And he took their king's crown from off gold, with the precious stones,) and it was set on David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city in great abundance.

31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and put them under saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron. and made them pass through the brick-kiln : and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. So David and all the people

1 Amnon, loving Tamer, by Jonadah's counsel frigneth himself sick, and ravisheth her: 15 he hateth her, and turneth her away.

A ND it came to pass after this, that Abea-lom the son of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar ; and Amnon the son of David loved ber.

2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin: and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David's brother:

and Jonadab was a very subtil man.

4 And he said unto him. Why art thou, being the king's son, lean (rom day to day? Wilt thou not tell me! And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's

5 And Jonedab said unto him. Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick : and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee let my sister Tamar come and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 T So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick : and when the king was come to see him. Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee let Tamar my sister come and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Ampon's house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him, but he refused to est. And Amnon said. Have out all men from me: and they west out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which ahe had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amson her brother.

17 Then he called his servant that minis-lit is tered unto him, and said. Put now this momas out from me, and bolt the door after her. 18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the kingle daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and holted the door after her.

19 T And Tamer put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy bro-ther, regard not this thing. So Tamar remain-ad desolate in her brother Absalom's house. 21 T But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

Absalom invited all the king's sons.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant bath sheepshearers; let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants, go with thy servant. 25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my son, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him : howbeit, he would not go, but blessed him. 26 Then said Absalom, if not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should be go with thee ? 27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the king's sone go with him.

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto

Amnon as Absalom had commanded: then all the king's sons arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule and fied.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said. Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said. As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, none can turn to the right hand or to the left from aught that my lord the king hath spoken : for thy servant Joab, he hade me, and he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: und my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

21 T And the king said unto Josh, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore,

Absalom stealeth the hearts of Isracl: 10 he maketh a conspiracy. 13 David fleeth from Jerusalem. ND it came to pass after this, that Absa-iom prepared him charlots, and horses, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate: and it was so, that when any man that had a controversy came to the king for judgment, then, Absa-lom called unto him, and said. Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel. 3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is so man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any sult or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice! 5 And it was to, that when any man came nigh to Aim to do him obelsance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him. 6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so

Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. 7 ¶ And it came to pass after forty years, that Abralom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my yow, which I have wowed unto the LORD, in Hebron.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the Lond shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the Lord.

9 And the king said unto him. Go in peace. So he arose and went to Hehron.

10 T But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying. As soon as ye hear from the sole of his foot even to the crown of the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalam went two bundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing

12 And Absolom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, sees from Cilch, while he effered marridees, and all the people that was with him covered. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people every man his bead, and they went up, weapincreased continually with Absalom.

13 ¶ And there came a messenger to David, mying. The hearts of the men of lures are after Absolom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that ere with him at Jerusalem. Arise, and let us fice : for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servents said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall appoint.

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalem Absalom spake unto him, saying. Abkliophel hath spoken after this manner; shall we do after his saying ? If not, speak thou.

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, The counsel that Abithophel bath given, is not good at this time. 8 For, said Hushal, thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and they be chaled in their minds, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field : and thy father is a man of war, and will not ledge with the people. 9 Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be everthrown at the first. that whosoever beareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

10 And he also that is valient, whose heart men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahl-is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

II Therefore I counsel, that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will ground; and of him, and of all the men that are with him, there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there be not one small stone found there. 14 And Abralom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel: fe one might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithousel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled. 16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell Ba-wid, saying, Lodge not this night in the plates of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

A ND there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trum pet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And David came to his house at Jefrom Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the rusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood. 4 ¶ Then said the king to Amasa. Assemthou over with me, and I will feed thee with ble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah: but he tarried longer than the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom : take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest be get him fenced cities, 7 And there went out after him Joab's men, coals of fire kindled. 14 The Loan thundered from heaven, and e Most High uttered his voice. 15 And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them. 16 And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered at the rebuking of the Loap, at the blast of the breath of his nostrile. 17 He sent from above, he took me; he drew me out of many waters,

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the Loan was my stay D He brought me forth also into a large place : he delivered me, because he delighted is me 21 The Lord rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the cleanness my hands hath he recompensed me. 22 For I have kept the ways of the Load, 23 For all his judgments were before me: and as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

24 I was also upright before him, and have kept myself from mine iniquity.

25 Wherefore the Lord hath recompensed me according to my rightenusness; according to my cleanness in his eye-sight.

26 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt shew thyself-upright.

27 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself unsavoury

28 And the afflicted people thou wilt save : but thine eyes are upon the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down.

29 For thou art my lamp, O Load: and the Lord will lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee I have run through a troop : by my God have I leaped over a wall 31 As for God, his way is periect; the word of the Loan is tried; he is a buckler to all them that trust in him.

32 For who is God, save the Loap! and who is a rock, save our God?

33 God is my strength and power: and he maketh my way perfect.

34 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places. 35 He teacheth my hands to war; so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms 36 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy gentleness bath made me 37 Thou bast enlarged my steps under me;

so that my feet did not slip. 38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them; and turned not again until I had consumed them. 39 And I have consumed them, and wounded them, that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under my feet.

40 For thou hast girded me with strength to battle: them that rose up against me hast thou subdued under me. 41 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies, that I might destroy them that hate me.

42 They looked, but there was none to save; even unto the Loan, but he answered them not.

43 Then did I beat them as small as the dust of the earth, I did stamp them as the mire of the street, and did spread them abroad. 44 Theu also hast delivered me from the strivings of my people, thou hast kept me to be head of the heathen: a people which

I knew not shall serve me. 45 Strangers shall submit themselves urto me: as soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me. 46 Strangers shall fade away, and they shall he afraid out of their close places. 47 The Load liveth; and blessed be my Beth-lehem.

1 David professeth his faith in God's promises:
8 a catalogue of his mighty men.
Now these be the last words of David.
David the son of Jesse said, and the mon David the son of Jesse said, and the man who was raised up on high, the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the awaet pealmist of Israel, said,

2 The Spirit of the Lord spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.

3 The God of Israel said, the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God.

4 And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds; as the tender grass springing out of the earth by clear shining after rain.

5 Although my house be not so with God: yet he bath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although he make if not to grow.

6 But the sons of Belial shall be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands:

7 But the man that shall touch them, must be fenced with imp and the stail of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in rodite, the same place.

8 These be the names of the mighty men whom David had; the Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Ezuite; he lifted up his spear a tainst eight hundred, whom he slew at one time.

9 And after him was Eleazar the son of Dodo the Abohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:

10 He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the Loan wrought a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.

Il And after him was Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles; and the people fled from the Phillstines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground. an idefended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great victory.

13 And three of the thirty chief went down, and came to David in the harvest time, unto the cave of Aduliam: and the troop of the Philistines pitched in the valley of Rephaim.

4 And David was then in an hold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in 15 And David longed, and said. Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lenem, which is by the gate!

16 And the three mighty men brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took if, and brought if to David: nevertheless, he would not drink thereof, but poured it out unto the Long.

17 And he said, Be it far from me, O LORD, that I should do this: is not this the blood of the men that went in jeopardy of their lives? therefore he would not drink it.

These things did these three mighty men. 18 And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief among three. And he lifted up his spear against three hundred, and slew them, and had the name among three. 19 Was he not most honourable of three? therefore he was their captain : howbeit, he attained not unto the first three

20 And Benaiah the son of Jeholada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done many acts, he slew two lion-like men of Moab . he went down also and slew a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow:

21 And he slew an Egyptian, a goodly man and the Egyptian had a spear in his band but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear 22 These things did Benaish the son of Jehoizela, and had the name among three mighty 23 He was more honourable than the thirty, but he attained not to the first three. And thite, Ittai the son of Ribal out of Gibcah of the children of Benjamin, 30 Renaish the Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash, 31 Abi-albon the Arbathite. Azmayeth the Barbumite, 32 Elianba the Shaalbonite, of the sons of Jashen, Jonathan,

33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahlam the son of Sharar the Hararite, 34 Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite, Elian the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, 35 Hezrai the Carmelite, Paaral the Arbite.

36 Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite,

37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armour-bearer to Joab the son of Zeruiah, 38 Ira an Ithrite, Gareb an Ithrite, 39 Uriah the Hittite: thirty and seven in all. CHAP. XXIV.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the Loan came unto the prophet

Gad, David's seer, saying,

12 Go and say unto David, Phus saith the LORD. I offer thee three things; choose thee

11 Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth if not?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and confirm thy words.

15 ¶ And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very and Abishag the Shunamite ministered unto the king

19 And he bath slain owen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and bath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the bost : but Solomon thy servant bath he not called.

20 And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the kin after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted offenders.

22 ¶ And lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold, I atnan the problet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed bimself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

25 For he is gone down this day, and bath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiather the priest; and behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, God save king Adonijah.

26 But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. and thy servant Solomon, bath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him !

28 T Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba: and she came into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

29 And the king sware, and said, As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress.

30 Even as I sware unto thee by the Lorn God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day. 31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live for ever. 32 T And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jeholada. And they came before the king.

33 The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solo-mon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon:

34 And let Zadok the priest and Natharkhe prophet anoint him there king over Israel : and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel and over Judab.

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen : the Loan God of my lord the king say so too.

37 As the Loan bath been with my lord the king, even so be he with folomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gibos.

39 And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, God save king Solomon.

40 And all the people came up after him; and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them. 41 T And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him, beard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joah heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore it the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I sware to him by the Loan, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless; for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hour head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

Il And the days that David reigned over

Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the Loap; that he might fulfil the word of the Long, which he spake concern-

8 Taen tidings came to Joab; for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he turned not after Absolom. And Josh fled unto the tabernacie of the Loan, and caught hold on the borns of the altar.

was in all nations round about. 32 And he spake three thousand proverbs;

and his songs were a thousand and five. 33 And he spake of trees, from the cedartree that is in Lebanon, even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall : he spake also of bearts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, we shall be atronger than they. 24 And do this thing; Take the kings away, very man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms:

25 And number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and charlot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.

28 T And there came a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the bills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye caused him to come up into the charlot. 34' And Ben-kaded said unto him, The cities which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaris. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

35 ¶ And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour in the word of the Loap, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him.

34 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the Loap, behold, as claim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall people; slay thee. And as soon as he was departed him, that he was of the prophets

42 And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Recause thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.

1 Ahab denied Naboth's vineyard. 5 Jezebee causeth Naboth to be condemned. 17 Eltjah denounceth judgments against Ahab and Jezebel.

ND it came to pass after these things, that A Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Famaria.

2 And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vine-yard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, The Loap forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee

4 And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed. and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.

5 But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou catest no bread?

6 And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money ; or else if it please thee, I will give thee another vine vard for it : and he answered. I will not give thee my vineyard.

7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry; I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's rame, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth

11 And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

13 And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him : and the men of Relial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying. Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.

14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Na-shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine. 20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O mine enemy? And he answered, I have found thee; because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.

21 Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab him that pisseth against the wall, and him that is shut up and left in Israel.

22 And will make thine house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the pro-rocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to children of Israel.

27 And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth, and went softly.

28 And the word of the Loap came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

29 Seest thou now Abab humbleth himself but in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

18 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw behoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him : and Jehoshaphat cried out.

1 Elisha multiplieth the widow's oil, 8 giveth a son to the Shunamite, 18 raiseth her dead son, 38 and at Gilgal healeth the deadly pottage.

OW there er " a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the Loap? and the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me : what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house save a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go, borrow thes vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set saide that which is full.

11 And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into beaven.

12 And Elisha saw if, and he cried, My father, my father! the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

13 He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;

14 And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said. Where is the Loup God of Elijah? And when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisia went over.

15 ¶ And when the sons of the prophets, which were to view at Jericho, saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.

16 And they said unto him, Behold now, there be with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master; lest peradventure the Spirit of the Load bath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shali not send.

water is naught, and the ground barren. 29 And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put sait therein: and they brought if to him.

21 And he went forth unto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and sold, Thus saith the Loan, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land.

22 So the waters were healed unto this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spake.

23 ¶ And he went up from thence unto Beth-el; and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said unto him, Go up, thou baid-head; go up, thou baid-head.

24 And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the Lorp: and there came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and tare forty and two children of them.

4 ¶ And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and rendered unto the king of Israel as hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

5 But it came to pass, when Abab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 ¶ And king Jeboram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel.

7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle! And he said, I will go up; I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my borses as thy horses.

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up ? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom; and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey : and there was no water for the host, and for the cattle that followed them.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-beauth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 And the Avites made Nibbaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their childre in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech the gods of Sepharveigs.

32 So they feared the Load, and made unto hemselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 They feared the Load, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the Loan, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordisances, or after the law and commandment Moob, whom he named Israel:

nant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power, and a stretched-out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacri-Sce.

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, ye shall obsere to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods. 38 And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget, neither shall ye fear other gods. 39 But the Loap your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all vour enemies 40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day. CHAP. XVIII.

1 Herekich's good reign: 4 he destroyeth idol-atry, and prosperath. 9 Samaria is carried captive for their riss.

TOW it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Iarael, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Abi the daughter of Zachariah.

3 And he did that which was right in the his father did.

4 ¶ He removed the high places, and brake the images, and cut down the groves, and brake in places the brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incesse to it: and he called it Nehushtan.

5 He trusted in the Loap God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before bim

6 For he chave to the Long, and departed' not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the Loap commanded Moses.

7 And the Load was with him, and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

8 He amote the Philistipes, even unto Gaza, and the borders thereof, from the tower of the vatchmen to the fenced city.

9 And it came to pess in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, (which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Eliah king of Israel,) that Shalmaneser king of Amyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it

10 And at the end of three years they took it : even in the sixth year of Hezekiah (that is the ninth year of Moshes king of Israel) Sameria was taken.

1) And the king of Amyria did carry away: nances, or after the law and commandment Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Haisling which the Loan commanded the children of and in Habor by the river of Gozna, and in the cities of the Medes;

in Sty. 13 Because they obeyed not the voice of the thee, to speak these words? hath he not see Lord their God, but transgressed his covenor do them.

13 T Now in the fourteenth year of king

Idolatry destroyed.

Hezekiah did Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them. 14 And Hezekish king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have offended; return com me: that which thou puttest on me I will beer. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judan three hundred talents of silver, and thirty talents of gold.

15 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the Lord, and in the treasures of the king's house. 16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the Lord. and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Juckh had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.

17 T And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great host against Jerusalem. And they west up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper peol, which is in the highway of the fuller's field. 18 And when they had called to the king. there came out to them Elimin the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and

Shebra the scribe, and Josh the son of Asaph the recorder 19 And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? 20 Thou sayest, (but they are but vain words,)

I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dest thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? 21 Now behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand and pierce it: so is Pharach king of Egypt unte all that trest on him.

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the Lonn our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah bath taken away, and he'h said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand borses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

25 Am Lanow come up without the Lord against this place to destroy it? The Lord said to me. Go up against this land, and destroy it. 26 Then said Eliakim the con of Hilkinh, and

Shehna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand if: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath My master sent me to thy master, and tel Isalah, me to the men which sit on the wall, that they t, and all that Moses the servant of the may eat their own dung, and drink their own commanded, and would not hear them, plus with you?

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jewe' language, and spake, saying. Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand. 30 Neither let Hezekiah make vou trust in the Lorn, saying, The Lorn will surely de-liver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. 31 Hearken not unto Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria. Make an agreement with the by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The Loan will deliver us 33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria! 34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they, among all the gods of the sountries, that have delivered their countr out of mine hand, that the Loan should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. 37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the bousehold, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder to Hezekiah, with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

CHAP. XIX. 1 Hezekiah. mourning, sendeth to Isaiah ta pray for them: 6 he comforteth them. 8 Sennacherib sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah. 14 Hezekiah's prayer. 35 An angel slayeth the Assyrians. 36 Sennacherib te covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the Loan 2 And he sent Eliakim, which was over the household, and Shebns the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with suckcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amon 3 And they said unto him. Thue saith Hezekiah. This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

4 It may be the Lone thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Amyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God; and will reprove the words which the Loan thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up the prayer for the remnant that are left.

5 So the servants of king Herckish came to

6 ¶ And Isaiah said usto them. Thus shall the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter a say to your master. Thus saith the Loan, into the lodgings of his borders, and into the Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me 7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and be shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 T So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for ruinous heaps. he had beard that he was departed from

Lechish. 9 And when he heard say of Tirbakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight aigst thee : he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jorusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of ≜myria. 11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of ssyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly : and shalt thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Thelasar!

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivah!

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it be ore the LOAD

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, which dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God. even thou alone, of all the kinguoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth. 16 Loan, bow down thine ear, and hear:

epen. Long, thine eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

17 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Amyria have destroyed the nations and their lands.

18 And have east their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.
19 New therefore, O Lond our God, I eseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou 22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed! and against whom bast thou exalted My voice, and lifted up thise eyes on high?

23 By thy messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said. With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall coder-trees thereof, and prayed unto the Losn, saying, forest of his Curmel. 24 I have digged and drunk strange waters and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of besieged places.

25 Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste fenced cities into 26 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and con-founded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house-top, and as corn blasted before it be rown up.

27 But I know thy abode, and thy going out. and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

28 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult is come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my book in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way which thou can est.

29 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits thereof.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall yet again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the Loan of hosts shall do

32 Therefore thus saith the Loan concerning the king of Assyria. He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shield, nor cast a bank

7 And Isalah said, Take a lump of figs : and they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 T And Hezeklah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the Lond will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the Loan the third day !

9 And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the Loan, that the Loan will do the thing that he hath spoken: Shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees ?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shallow return backward ten degrees.

13 And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and shewed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious cintment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

14 Then came Isalab the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto And Hezekiah said. They are come from a far country, even from Babylon.

15 And he said, What have they seen in thine bouse? And Hezekiah answered, All the things that are in mine house have they seen : there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. 16 And Isafah said unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the Lorp.

17 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store unto this day, shall be carried into Babylen: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

which was found in the house of the LORD. 3 ¶ And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the Lord, to walk after the Lord, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the Loup all the vessels that were made for Baul, and for the grove. and for all the host of heaven; and he burnt them vithout Jerussiem in the fields of hid-Beth-el.

5 And he put down the idolatrous priests. whom the kings of Judah Lar in the life burn inceuse in the high pla es in the cities of Judah, and in the place round about Je-rusalem; them also that turnt incesse unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the heat of heaven to the brook Kidron, and burnt it at the brook Kidron, and stamped if small to powder, and Beth-el. cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people.

>7 And he brake down the houses of the sodomites, that were by the house of the Lorn, where the women wove haugings for the grove. 8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burnt incense, from Geba to Beer-sheba, and brake down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the eitv

9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the Lorn in Jeru-aiem, but they did eat of the unleavesed bread among their brethren. 10 And he defiled Topbeth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech.

11 And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entering in of the house of the LORD, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain, chariots of the sun with fire. 12 And the alters that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the alters which Manameh had made in the two courts of the house of the Loan, did the king beat down, and had provoked him withal. brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron. 13 And the high places that mere before Jerusalem, which were on the right band of have chosen, and the house of which I said, the mount of Corruption, which Solomon My name shall be there. the king of Israel had builded for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonlans, and for that he did, are they not written in the book Chemosh the abomination of the Mosbites, of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 ¶ Moreover the alter that was at Beth-el. and the high place which Jeroboam the son o Nebet, who made Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down and burnt the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burnt the grove.

16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spled written in this book. And all the people stood the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and sent and took the bones out of the se pulchres, and burnt them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the Long. which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words. 17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God which came ron, and carried the ashes of them unto from Judah, and proclaime these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the Loan, asser'y, the house of the tabernacle, by wards. 24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. 25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them. 26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the chambers and treasuries of the house of 27 ¶ And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankineense, and the spices.

30 And some of the sons of the priests made the ointment of the spices.

31 And Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the first-born of Shallum the Korabite. had the set office over the things that were made in the pans.
32 And other of their brethren, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the shew-bread, to prepare it every sabbath.

33 And there are the singers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the chambers were free : for they were employed in that work day and night.

34 These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; these dwelt at Jerusalem. 35 ¶ And in Gibson dwelt the father of Gibeou, Jehiel, whose wife's name was Maschah :

36 And his first-born son Abdon, then Zur, and Kish, and Basl, and Ner, and Nadab, 37 And Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

Abinadab, and Esh-baul. 40 And the son of Jonathan was Merib-haai : and Merib-baal begat Micab.

41 And the sons of Micah were Pithon, and Melechand Tahrea, and Ahas.

42 And Ahaz begat Jarah, and Jarah begat Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri begat Moza, 43 And Moza begat Binea; and Rephalah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.

44 And Azel had six sons, whose names ere these, Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmeel, and Sheuriah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these were the sons of Azel.

CHAP. X. 1 Saul's overthrow and death: 8 the Philistines triumah over him. 11 Jabesh-zilead's kinduess to him and his sons.

TOW the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Malchishua, the sons of Saul. 3 And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers. 4 Then said Suul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith . lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armour-br a r would not; for he was sore afraid. Ho Salli took a aword, and fell upon it. 5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Sank was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died. 6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his bouse died together. 7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fied, and that Saul and his some were dead, then they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them. 8 T And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his some fallen in mount Gilbon.

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his bead, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idels, and to the pag-

11 ¶ And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, 12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jaberh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 T So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the Loap, even against the word of the Lord, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to inquire of #; 14 And inquired not of the Loan : therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the son of Jesse.

CHAP. XI. 3 David made king: 4 he winneth the castle of Zion from the Jebustles by Joah's valour: 10 A catalogue of his northies.

THEN all Israel gathered themselves to David noto Hebron, saying, Behold, we

- are thy bone and thy flesh.

 2 And moreover in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the Loan thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people name among the three. Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.
- 3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the Loan; and they anointed David king over according to the word of the Loan by Samuel.

4 ¶ And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites mere, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheas David took the castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David said, Whoseever smiteth the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. So Josh the son of Zeruish went first up, and was

they called it, The city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about; and Joab repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David waxed greater and greater : for the Loap of bosts was with him.

10 These also ere the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king according to the word of the Loap concerning Lorael. 11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; Jashobeam an Hachpenite, the chief of the captains: he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar he son of Podo the Abobite, who was one of the three

13 He was with David at Pas-dammim. and there the Philistines were gathered together to attle, where was a parcel of ground full of partey; and the people fled from before the Philistines

14 And they set themselves in the midst of has parcel, and delevered it, and slew the Philistines; and the Load saved them by a great delivernate.

15 ¶ Now three of the thirty captains went sown to the rock to David, into the cave of Adultam; and the host of the Philistines enemped in the valley of Rephalm.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate?

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took if, and brought if to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD.

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy i for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it: therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three might iest.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Epyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam : and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24 These things did Bensish the son of Jehoisds, and had the same among the three mighties.

25 Behold, he was honourable among the thirty, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

26 T Also the valiant men of the armies were Asahel the brother of Joah, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Beth-lehem.

was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are me, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them

Manasseh. 21 And they helped David against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the bost. 22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 ¶ And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of

of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. 26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six bundred. 27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred.

28 And Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains 29 And of the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul. 30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers. 31 And of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were mes that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do; the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment. 33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, 34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them, & th shield and spear, thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

tle, expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instru-ments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make

David kicg. 39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethrea had prepared for them. 40 Moreover they that were nigh them, tall, brought bread on 2000s, and on camels, rusalem: and David begat more sons and and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, meal, daughters. caker of figs, and bunches of reisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly : for there was joy in Israel.

CHAP. XIII.

I David fetcheth the ark from Kiriath-jearim. 9 Uzza being smillen, the ark is left at the

A ND David comulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the Lord our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us : 3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we inquired not at it in the days of 4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shinor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjeth-jearim

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Bealah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belenged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza

11 And David was displeased, because the Lond had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.

13 And David was afraid of God that day, aying. How shall I bring the ark of God home

13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the Loap blessed the house of Obededom, and all that he had. CHAP. XIV.

I Hiram's kindness to David. 2 David's felicity: 8 his two victories.

TOW Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house.

2 And David perceived that the Lord had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingtom was lifted up on high, because of his people largel.

3 T And David took more wives at Je-twelve.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammus, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet.

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, 7 And Elishams, and Beelisds, and Eliphs-

8 ¶ And when the Philistines heard that David was anciented king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of 4t, and went out against them. 9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. 10 And David inquired of God, mying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the Loan said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

Il So they came up to Baal-perszim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God bath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

burned with fire.

selves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God: and God said unto him. Go not we after them : turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry-trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to bettle for God is gone forth before thee to amite the bost of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him : and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the fame of David went out into all lands; and the Lorp brought the fear of him upon all nations.

LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever 3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the Loup unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Asron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty 7-Of the sons of Gershom; Joel the chief,

chief, and his brethren two hundred: 9 Of the some of Hebron; Eliel the chief,

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asainh, and Joel, Shemalah, and Ellel, and Amminadab.

12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levies: sanctify your-selves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the Loan God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for

13 For because ye did if not at the first, the Lond our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order. 14 So the priests and the Levites sauctified themselves to bring up the ark of the Loan

God of Israel. 15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded, according to the word of the Loup.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, pealteries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel: and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaish, and Masseish, and Mattithish, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass:

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Masseigh, and Bensiah, with pealteries on Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleb, Mikneish, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with barps on the Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, mas for song; he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were door-keepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethancel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benniah, and Eliezer the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obededom and Jehiah were door-keepers for the ark.

25 T So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Loan out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God belped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the Long, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine lines, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chemaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen. 28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Loan with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 T And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the Lord came to the city of David, that Michal, the daughter of Saul, looking out at a window, saw king David deacing and playing: and sne despised him in her

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the Loan.

37 T So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required:

38 And Obed-edom, with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be porters:

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren

the priests, before the tabernacle of the Loan in the high place that was at Gibeon, 40 To offer burnt-offerings unto the Lord upon the altar of the burnt-offering continually morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the Loan, which he commanded Israel: 41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the Loap, because

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthua were porters.

43 And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAP. XVII.
3 David, forbidden to build God an house, 11 is promised blessings in his seed.

OW it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the Loan remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David. Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

3 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the Loap, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to my of the judges of Is-rael, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying. Why have ye not built me an house of cedara ? 7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the Loap of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel: 8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedpees waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the Load will build thee an bouse.

11 T And it shall come to pass when the days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

14 But I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever : and his throne shall be established for evermore.

15 According to all these words, and ac-cording to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 T And David the king came and sat before the Lorp, and said, Who am I, O Lorp God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O Loup God.

thy servant.

19 O Load, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, is making known all these great things

2) O Loan, there is none like tiree, neither is there any god besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the errth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make these a tame of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt;

22 For thy people larged didnt thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, Long, becamest their God.

David subducts the Philistinia 23 Therefore now, Loan, let the thing that executed judgment and justice among all his thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying The Lorp of hosts is the God of Israe even a God to Israel; and let the house of David thy servant be established before 25 For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant, that thou wilt build him an house : there-pray before thee.

26 And now, Lory, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness upto thy servant: 27 Now therefore let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever : for thou blessest, O Loan, and shall be blessed for ever. CHAP. XVIII.

David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites, 3 and smileth Hadareser and the Syrians.

NOW after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Monb; and the Monbites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also boughed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an bundred cheriots. 5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syriams two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damaseus; and the Syriams became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the Loan preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from Tibhath and from Chun. cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah ;

eighteen thousand

13 T And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the Loan preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 T So David reigned over all Israel, and people.

15 And Josh the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehosbaphat the son of Ahilud melech the son of Abiathar, were the priests: and Shavsha was scribe;

TOW it came to pass after this, that Na-hash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that David doth honourthy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst, hard by their buttocks, and sent them away. 5 Then there went certain, and told David bow the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 T And when the children of Ammon ser that they had made themselves odious to David. Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them charjots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maschah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand charlots, and the king of Maachab and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered thembrass, wherewith Solomon made the brasen selves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Josh for me, then thou shalt help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will belp thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God; and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

ray against the Syrians, they fought with him. 18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men, which fought in charlots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the bost

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the greatly, because I have done this thing: but children of Ammou any more. now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of children of Ammon any more.

2 And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

4 T And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines: at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhacan the son of Jair slew Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear's staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose finmers and toes were four and twenty, six on ach hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant.

7 But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimen, David's brother, slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath: and they felt by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in great strait : let me fall now into the hand of Even so dealt the Long; for very great ere his mercies:

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it : and as he was destroying, the Sippai, that was of the children of the glant: Loan beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the Loan stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the Lord stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, I at not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed: but as for these sheep, what have they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house;

threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground. 22 Then David said to Orsan, Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an alter therein unto the Loan; thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people. 23 And Ornan said unto lavid, Take if to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give the the oxen also for burnt-offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the ment-offering; I give it all.

24 And king David said to Organ, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price; for I will not take that which is thine for the LOED, nor offer burst-offerings without cost. 25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six bundred abekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the Loan, and offered burnt-offerings, and peaceofferings, and called upon the Lonn; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt-offering.

CHAP. I.

I The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon: 7 hts choice of wisdom is blessed by God: 13 his strength and wealth.

A ND Solumon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the LORD his God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, by their means.

the chief of the fathers

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place that was at Gibson; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Loap had made in the wilderness.

4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the place match David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover the brasen altar that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the sen of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the Loan: and Bolomon and the congregation sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar before the LORD, which mas at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt-offerings upon it. 7 In that night did God appear upto Solomon, and mid unto him, Ask what I shall give thee. 8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead

9 Now, O Loap God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people : for who can judge this thy people that is so great ?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked in iron, and in purple, and crimson and blue, riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine, and that can skill to grave with the cunning enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusahast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself. that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king ;

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had thy servants, that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee bave the like-

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to the high place that mas at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.

3 T And Solomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didet send him ceders to build bim an house to dwell therein, even se deal

4 Behold. I build an house to the name of the Loud my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual shew-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasis of the Loup our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 But who is able to build him an house. seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him!

7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and lem, whom David my father did provide.

8 Send me also cedar-trees, fir-trees, and algum-trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and behold, my servants shall be with 17 And they came up into Judeh, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's bouse, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoshez, the youngest of his sons.

18 T And after all this the Loan smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

2 And he did that which was right in the night of the Lorn, according to all that David his (ather had done. 3 ¶ He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the Loan, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street, 5 And said unto them, Hear me, ye Levites : sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the Loan God of your fathers, and carry forth the fithiness out of the boly place. 6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the Loup, and turned their backs. 7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense, nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place unto the God of Israel. 8 Wherefore the wrath of the LORD was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he bath delihissing, as ye see with your eyes 9 For lo, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons, and our daughters, and our wives, are in captivity for this.

11 My sons, be not now negligent; for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto

12 Then the Levites space, Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merarl, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azarish the began size with the trumpets, and with the in son of Jehnlefel: and of the Gershonitas; Just struments ordered by David king of Israel. the sin of Zimmah, and Eden the son of 28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers song, and the transporter

14 And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according doors of the house of the Lord, and he made words of the Lord, to deame the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the Lond, to cleane it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the Lord into the court of the house of the Lord. And the Levites took if, to carry if out abroad into the brook K idro:

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day lem: but they brought him not into the sepul- of the month came they to the porch of the chres of the kings of larsel: and Hezekiah Lord: so they sanctified the house of the Loap in eight days: and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of 19 Moreover all the vessels which king Ahas in his reign did cast away in his trans-gression have we prepared and sanctified; and behold, they are before the altar of the Lord.

20 Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he goats, for a sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the som of Atrea to offer them on the alter of the Long.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled if on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar. 23 And they brought forth the he-geats for the sin-offering before the king and the con-gregation; and they laid their hands upon

24 And the priest killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for vered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to the king commanded that the burnt-offering and the sin-oliering should be made for all Israel

25 And he set the Levites in the house of the Loan with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan. the prophet: for so was the communication the Lorn by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the-trumpets.

77 And Herekiah commanded to effer the hurnt-offering upon the altar. And when the burnt-offering began, the song of the LORD sounded: and all this continued until the fore gave them up to . burnt-offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshipped.

30 Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise anto the Loan with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves unto the Loan, come near, and bring sacrifices and hank-offerings into the house of the Lord And the congregation brought in sacrifices and bank-offerings; and as many as were of a free heart burnt-offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs : all these were for a burnt-offering to the Lord

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they sould not alay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests and sanctified themselves: for the Lerites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and the drink-offerings for every burnt-offer-was set in order. 36 And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly. CHAP. XXX.

2 For the king had taken counsel, his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sauctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king and all the songregation.

5 So they established a decree to make proslamation throughout all Israel, from Beershebs even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the Loan God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done if of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the Lorn God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

9 For if ye turn again unto the Load, your brethren and your children shall find com-passion before them that lend them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the Loap your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manassek. even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

Il Nevertheless, divers of Asber, and Manameh, and of Zebulun, humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem

12 Also in Judab the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of Ta king, and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14. And they arose and took away the alters that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests ing. So the service of the house of the Loan and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the Lond.

16. And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Meses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand A the Levites.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified : therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD. 18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issaehar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good Long pardon every one 19 That prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleaned according to the purification of the anctuary. 20 And the Lord hearkened to Hezekish, and healed the people.

21 And the shildren of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the Loap day by day, singing with loud instruments unto the

22 And Hesskiah spake comfortably unto all the Levites that taught the good knowledge of the Loap : and they did out throughout the feast seven days, offering peace-offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers. 23 And the whole assembly took coursel to

25 And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the straners that ame out of the land of Israel, and hat awelt in Judah, rejoiced.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.

27 Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy dwellingplace, even unto heaven

NOW when all this was finished, all lerael that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and brake the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benmmin, in Ephraine also and Manasseh, until they had uiterly destroyed them all. Then they had utterly destroyed them alt. all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 ¶ And Hezekish appointed the courses of the priests, and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt-offerings, and for peaceofferings, to minister, and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the tents of the Long. 3 He oppointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as if is written in the law of the Lord.

4 Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be eaouraged in the law of the LORD.

26 Behold, I will gather thee to the fathers. and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

30 And the king west up into the house of the Loan, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the Loup.

31 And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the Long, to walk after the Loan, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonles, and his statutes, with all his heart. and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand to if. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. 33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that perfained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Igrael to serve, even to serve the Loud their God. And all his days they departed not from following the Loan, the God of their fathers

16 So all the service of the Lord was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were preent kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread, seven days.

18 And there was no passover like to that kept in Israel, from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the of Jarusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept.

20 T After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah! I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have wer: for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

3 And they set the alter upon his bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt-offering thereon unto the Long, even burnt-offerings morning and evening.

4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerjugs by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day sequired;

5 And afterward offered the centinual bushtoffering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the Long that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-up hither. 3 But Zerubbahel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them. Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build note the Loan God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us

4 Then the people of the land weakened the bands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,

5 And bired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius ting of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 T And in the days of Artexerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian torgue.

8 Rehum the chancellor and Shimshaithe scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king, in this sort:

9 Then wrote Rehum the chanceller, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharanthebites, the Tarpelites, the Apbarsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites

19 And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time buth made insurrection against kings, and that pebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

21 Give ye now commandment to cause there men to cause, and that this city be not builded, until mether commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that we fail not to do this : why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings ?

23 T Now when the copy of king Ar taxegxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of and place them in the house of God.

Now therefore, Tatnal, governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apparsachites, which are beyond the river, be ye far from thence :

7 Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God : that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not hindered. 9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rame, and lambs, for the burnt-offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, sait, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem,

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens. 7 Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil. and to confusion of face, as if is this day

8 And now for a little space grace hath been sherred from the Long our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our cycs, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen; yet our God hath ed mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolutions thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerualem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments.

11 Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying. The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abomizations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.

12 Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inberitance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for cur evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these aboming long! wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day : behold, we are before thee in our trespasses. for we cannot stand before thee because of this.
